EXPLANATION OF ACADEMIC GRADES

| Grade | Description | Notes |
|-------------|--|---|
| HD | High distinction Work of outstanding quality on all objectives of the assessment task or unit, which may be demonstrated by means of criticism, logical argument, interpretation of materials or use of methodology. This grade may also be given to recognise particular originality or creativity. | |
| D | Distinction Work of superior quality on all objectives, demonstrating a sound grasp of content, together with efficient organisation and selectivity | |
| C | Credit Work of good quality showing more than satisfactory achievement on all objectives, or work of superior quality on most of the objectives. | |
| P | Pass Work satisfies the assessment task or unit outcomes. The student has demonstrated a sound grasp of the issues and their implications. Work shows some evidence of critical analysis and a logical argument. | |
| S | Satisfactory Units that have a predominance of competency based assessment and Professional Placements are recorded as Satisfactory/ Unsatisfactory | |
| US | Unsatisfactory Units that have a predominance of competency based assessment and Professional Placements are recorded as Satisfactory/ Unsatisfactory | |
| F | Fail Unsatisfactory performance. Indicates inadequate and insufficient understanding and/or application of subject matter for an assessment task or for a unit of study. | |
| FI | Fail incomplete Unsatisfactory performance. Indicates the student did not complete all mandatory unit requirements (including assessment tasks and/or other unit requirements) as specified in unit documentation. | |
| I | Incomplete A grade is still to be determined. Either all or some of the mandatory assessment task/s for a unit of study are still to be met by the student and/or still in assessment review by the Unit Coordinator. The required assessment task/s must be completed by the end of the fourth week after the publication of grades for the semester or by the specified deadline set by the Unit Coordinator. Failure to do so will result in the conversion of the 'Incomplete' grade to a 'Fail Incomplete' grade. | |
